Course Description:

Music is its own special language that you are about to begin to become fluent in!

Music Appreciation will afford you the opportunity to delve deeply into listening to, discussing, and making music in a meaningful way. We will explore the evolution and development of music as we know it today, as well as non-Western music from around the world. We will look at music through the lens of its cultural and social implications, and build our awareness of the sources of our musical preferences. By the end of this course, you will be well-versed in musical terms, and also have basic knowledge of how to play some percussive and melodic instruments!

Grading Policy:

Attendance (20%): Please come to class and be on time to receive all of the credit for this portion of your grade.

Class Participation/Class work (30%): Simply raising your hand, sharing your thoughts, trying an instrument, or sharing music counts a whole lot!

Projects- Group and Individual (30%): Throughout the term, we will have a variety of both individual and group projects. Some projects will involve song analysis, presentations and demonstrations.

Homework (20%): Usually homework involves listening to a song and writing about it. Or reading about a song, or a type of music, and writing about it so that we can have a meaningful class discussion.

Other Expectations:

Music is a really fun, unifying subject so let's work as a (class) team with an open mind! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at mbrickel@schools.nyc.gov or stop by room 210 or C43.
