Course Description:

This course is designed to take both your music making and understanding to the next level. After a review of some basic music literacy, we will delve deeper into some more advanced aspects of music theory. We will also discuss and analyze a variety of songs for their melodic, harmonic and rhythmic qualities, as well as their lyrics and meaning. We will also do a great deal of group and solo improvisation, as well as some more structured songwriting activities.

Grading Policy:

Attendance (30%): This is a performance based class and you must be there to play! Please come to class and be on time to receive all of the credit for this portion of your grade.

Class Participation/Class work (30%): Simply raising your hand, sharing your thoughts, trying an instrument, or sharing music counts a whole lot!

Projects- Group and Individual (30%): Throughout the term, we will have a variety of both individual and group projects. Some projects will involve song analysis, presentations and demonstrations.

Homework (10%): Usually homework involves listening to a song and writing about it. Or reading about a song, or a type of music, and writing about it so that we can have a meaningful class discussion.

Other Expectations:

Music is a really fun, unifying subject so let's work as a (class) team with an open mind! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at mbrickel@schools.nyc.gov or stop by room 210.
