Growth Mindset:

I will continue to encourage students to have a growth mindset throughout the school year. A growth mindset is an approach to learning in which one is able to overcome the failures and obstacles that occur throughout the learning process. Those with a growth mindset have an open mind and can understand the value in learning. These learners are able to stay committed to learning and developing their skills.

Your DOE student e-mail address:

Make sure that you know your DOE student e-mail address and password. We will be using technological platforms for many of our assignments and you will need access to your e-mails in order to participate!

*Note- you will lose points off your participation grade if you cannot remember your student email and/or password

Materials:

You will need to bring a pen/pencil and folder to class. A notebook is optional.

Classroom rules/ norms and agreements:

The students and I worked together to create the classroom rules, otherwise known as the “norms and agreements”. Below are the norms and agreements we agreed on:

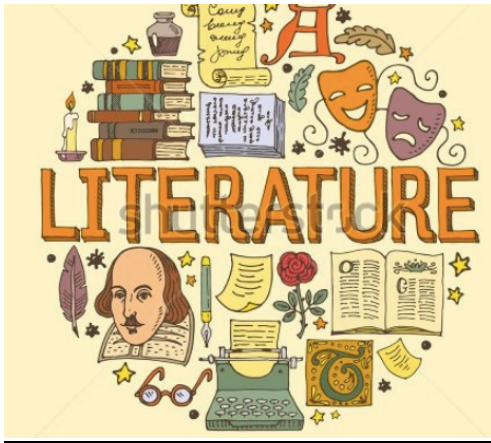

-F-Band class norms and agreements:

1. Respect other people’s opinions, privacy, pronouns, and belongings
2. Cell phone use only when work is complete or when using it for instructional purposes
3. Phone calls can only be made outside of the classroom
4. Leave the classroom only when dismissed or excused
5. One mic

-G-Band class norms and agreements:

1. No cell phone use during instruction, only use it on a limited basis during independent work time or in between classes
2. Phone calls need to be taken outside of the classroom only
3. Please use respectful and appropriate language
4. Please be respectful to yourself, others, and belongings/property
5. Eating small meals in class is allowed but please clean up after yourself

*Norms and agreements can be changed at any time upon request from the teacher, para, or students.

Grade Breakdown:

- 40%-Classwork
- 25%-Participation
- 25%-Exams, essays, projects
- 10%- Homework

*The participation grade is comprised of appropriate and constructive participation in class (2.5 points), arriving to class both on-time and prepared (2.5 points), and being respectful to yourself, peers, and staff (2.5 points), and attending class consistently (2.5 points).

Please check Google Classroom for updates on your grade.

Late work:

You will lose 5 points per day for late long-term assignments/projects. You will lose 1 point per day for every late classwork assignments. Tests and quizzes can be made up if notified in advance of the absence.

After 10 schooldays, late work will not be accepted unless there is a valid, documented excuse.
