

Financial Literacy Syllabus

P35

Mr. TURNER

C O U R S E I N F O

Financial Literacy is the possession of the set of skills and knowledge that allows an individual to make informed decisions with all of their financial resources.

Classroom Procedures

1. Join Class when it is your time
2. No Eating during lesson
3. Be engaged
4. Respect each other's time
5. Stay on task

Classroom Rules:

1. Be Respectful
2. Be Responsible
3. Do your best work, always

Supplies

- Pen/Pencil
- Notebook

Topics

- Principles of Personal Finance
- Opportunity Cost
- Budgeting
- Credit & Debt
- Entrepreneurship
- Taxes & Loans
- Job Resumes & Interviews
- Stock Market
- Real Estate
- Personal Banking

Email:

dturner7@schools.nyc.gov

Government Standards

- Standard USG-1:
 - The student will demonstrate an understanding of foundational economic theory, concepts, and application.
- Standard USG-2:
 - The student will demonstrate an understanding of foundational American political principles and the historical events and philosophical ideas that shaped the development and application of these principles.
- Standard -3:
 - The student will demonstrate an understanding of the basic organization and function of United States Economic System on national, state, and local levels.
- Standard -4:
 - The student will demonstrate an understanding of goods, services, and how they are distributed to people.

Absent Policy:

- If a student is absent it is the student's responsibility to collect & schedule make-up work with teacher

Use Google Classroom.com to find any missing assignments

Grading Policy

- Point system will be used (total points earned/ total points possible)
- Each assignment will be given a point value based on the difficulty of the assignment and the importance of the assignment to the unit studied.

Grading Scale:

50% participation 50% Individual Assignments